

CIGARBONE®

HENK

Everything you need ...

when you travel with your cigars:

HENK's new creation, the cigarbone.

Space for six cigars, your lighter, cutter, scissors and matches.

Perfect humidification with boveda® within the two integrated, removable cigar cases, both designed to store three cigars with a ring gauge of max. 60 and a length of max. 19 cm or 16 cm for the RT versions. Lastly, the cigarbone comes with an integrated ashtray. All this with incredibly small measurements: 20 (17 RT) x 9 x 7,5 cm!

Typical for HENK, the cigarbone is made of robust and finest materials, such as carbon fiber reinforced PTEG, finest leathers of your own choice and solid aluminum lids. Also a starter version (without carbon fiber and only one solid aluminium lids, non removable inner cigar cases), the Puro nero versions will be available from January 2020 starting at 168€.

HENK

Due to its clever interior design, you have an abundance of choices to store the industry's most popular lighters and cutters, as well as scissors and additional matches or an extra cigar punch. All accessories are stored within the cigarbone, while the cigars stay safely secured in their own humidified, sturdy and removable compartments.

The functional design of the cigarbone enables it to be used as a cigar bank, while you enjoy a cigar. The lid doubles as an elegant solid aluminium ashtray.

HENK

The two integrated cigar cases with boveda® humidification are easily removable for separate usage.

Thanks to their intelligent layout, you can close the cases with the integrated lid, usable for cigars up to a length of 19 (RT versions 16) cm.

HENK

HENK is known for their limitless options for creating bespoke masterpieces. The cigarbone is no exception to this philosophy. You can choose special leathers in nearly every color, as well as lids from exceptionally exclusive materials, such as real gold or platinum, branded with your personal logo or monogram.
